Anything you would like to share about how you experience these offerings? Were there other ways that you have maintained a connection during this time that have been meaningful for you? Please elaborate.

5. How does your family worship virtually with First on Fifth during this season?

- Facebook Live at 10:30am each Sunday
- YouTube each Sunday
- Facebook sometime during the week each week
- YouTube sometime during the week each week
- Worshiping online occasionally when we can
- I/we are not worshipping online regularly with First on Fifth

Anything you would like to share about how you experience virtual worship with First on Fifth?

6. How often do you feel you need to engage with your congregation online?

- Daily
- Three times a week
- One time a week
- Two times a month
- One time a month

Anything you would like to share about the frequency of your participation at First on Fifth? Are there any particular offerings that you consider 'not enough' 'just right' or 'too much'?

7. If you have not joined in some or all of these offerings, tell us a bit more about why not. What suggestions might you have for how we can better connect with you during this season?

8. What shifts to our rhythms have you enjoyed during these months? What might you want to carry forward from this season into the next?

9. Please share any further feedback you may have for our Coronavirus Task Force and pastoral staff.

Thank you for your abiding support for First on Fifth, especially as we seek to love one another in a safe, healthy manner right now!

We love and appreciate you!

Please return your survey to us no later than October 31, 2020!
